See reverse for additional University Center room rental rates.

Texas A&M University provides rooms and services to many categories of groups. The categories include combinations of Texas A&M students, faculty and staff, public organizations, private organizations, and state and local agencies. Depending on the definition, each category adheres to a corresponding rate schedule. Categories are defined as follows:

Category #1: Texas A&M University Student Organizations' meetings (recognized by Student Activities or Student organizations that are departmental-sponsored). TAMU departments that utilize the facility for one room for less than two hours.

Category #2: Texas A&M University Student Organizations charging fees for their event or hosting a social event lasting longer than four hours.

Category #3: Texas A&M University Departmental or System Part events

Category #4: Non-Texas A&M University Related Events

Special Building Openings

Events scheduled during times outside of the regularly scheduled hours of operation for the University Center will be assessed a special opening fee. If the building needs to be open earlier or later than regular business hours, an additional per hour charge will be assessed.
